Students who have qualifications from international higher education institutions must present an equivalence certificate from the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) who can be contacted on +27-(0)12-431-5070 or customercare@saqa.org.za or visit <http://www.saqa.org.za/index.php>

Applying to Transfer-in Credits

Boston allows students with completed credits from recognised education institutions to apply for credit accumulation and transfer (CAT). In the case of completed qualifications, a maximum of 50% of the credits may be transferred-in. Credit transfers will only be considered if accompanied by full academic records with a statement of satisfactory or good conduct. Students interested in applying will be considered individually by the Academic Committee based at Head Office; see relevant section in the Prospectus and the 'Application for Admission Form' online.

RPL Applicants

Boston admits a small number of students through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). Applicants interested in applying through RPL will be considered individually by the Academic Committee based at Head Office; see relevant section in the Prospectus and the 'Application for Admission Form' online.

What is the Duration of Study?

Based on the credits and notional hours of this qualification, the minimum duration is two (2) semesters over a period of one (1) year, and the maximum duration is three (3) years. For more information see, Table overleaf.

What is the Purpose of the Qualification?

The purpose of the qualification is to ensure that individual learners are equipped with the knowledge, theory and methodology of the important disciplines in advertising and integrated communication. This should enable them to demonstrate initiative and responsibility in a professional or academic context, as a basis for entry into the labour market, professional training, undergraduate study, or professional practice, in a wide range of careers within civil society, the public or private sectors.

The breadth and depth of learning to be achieved reflect a broad repertoire of skills and knowledge consisting of principles, theoretical engagement and levels of intellectual independence characteristic of a Higher Certificate, which facilitates access to the world of work and promotes critical and analytical citizenship. The qualification provides exciting career opportunities in the fields of advertising and communication practice, for example:

- Advertising (Sales, Campaign or Project) Administrator and/or Assistant
- Junior Advertising/Brand Administrator and/or Coordinator
- Junior Communications Officer
- Service, Sales or Product Representative
- Marketing/Brand/Communication Agent and/or Representative
- Brand Ambassador/Event Coordinator
- Micro Business Owner

What are the Programme Outcomes?

On completion of the programme, graduates will have the necessary knowledge and practical skills required to:

- Apply general communication principles to real life situations.
- Manage technology resources in organisations.
- Apply basic analysis processes to key concepts and principles of advertising and brand management theories.
- Demonstrate entrepreneurial skills.
- Identify the socio-economic needs of society and display cultural sensitivity within organisations.

What do I require to Pass a Module?

Students will need an overall mark of fifty percent (50%) to pass a module. Students who do not achieve a pass mark in a summative assessment (SA1 and/or SA2) may be provided one (1) further opportunity to retake (supplement) the summative assessment at an additional re-assessment fee.

How is the Overall Mark Calculated?

The overall mark will be calculated from the student's performance on formative assessments (FA's) and summative assessments (SA's).

What is the Curriculum and Fee?

The Boston Higher Certificate in Advertising & Integrated Communication Practice programme consists of ten (10) compulsory modules. See Table overleaf. For more information, see pages 28 to 29 for the Catalogue Description of each module.

Please note that Module Fees listed in the Table are for the 2022 academic year.

Visit your Support Centre to find out how you save up to a third of your fees as part of the Invest in SA Subsidy.

Prescribed textbooks are included in the fees.

How many modules can I take each semester?

Minimum is one (1) module per semester; this will ensure students remain academically active. The maximum number of modules you can take in any one (1) semester is dependent on the number of credits per module. It is recommended for full-time working adults to consider completing the programme in a duration exceeding the minimum period of twelve (12) months, which implies electing to take fewer modules per semester.

What are the assessment strategies?

See Table overleaf for information on the assessment strategy per module and reference the key list below to read about each assessment strategy relevant to your programme, in detail.

Assessment Strategy C (ASC): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as quizzes, will count fifty percent (50%) – twenty five percent (25%) each - towards the overall mark. A summative assessment in the form of a final exam (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%) towards the overall mark.

Due Performance (DP): This module is not weighted nor credit-bearing. However, the minimum hours required in continuous professional and career development must be completed before progressing to the next year of study or certification. It is vital that students in degree programmes develop greater breadth of understanding of interrelated disciplines and practices as mimicked in the world of work, and therefore participation in opportunities provided in this module is compulsory. A summative assessment in the form of reflective essay is required.

Assessment Strategy 1 (AS1): The formative assessment 1 (FA1), formative assessment 2 (FA2), formative assessment 3 (FA3) and summative assessment 1 (SA1), all in the form of practical assessments, will each count twenty five percent (25%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 2 (AS2): The formative assessment (FA1), also known as an assignment or test, will count fifty percent (50%) towards the overall mark. The summative assessment in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%).

Assessment Strategy 3 (AS3): The formative assessment (FA1), also known as an assignment or test, will count forty percent (40%) towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 4 (AS4): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments or tests, will count forty percent (40%) - twenty percent (20%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 5 (AS5): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments or tests, will count thirty percent (30%) - fifteen percent (15%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count sixty percent (60%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 6 (AS6): Formative Assessments (FA1 & FA2), which may take the form of assignments, research essays or tests will count forty percent (40%) – twenty percent (20%) each – towards the overall mark. Summative Assessments (SA1 & SA2), which may take the form of capstone projects, tasks, presentations, written or oral exams, or a research proposal will count sixty percent (60%) – thirty percent (30%) each – towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy IS (ASIS): An integrated summative assessment 1 (SA1) in the form of a final examination will count 100% towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy W (ASW): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments, will count forty percent (40%) - twenty percent (20%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a practicum, will count forty percent (40%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count twenty percent (20%) towards the overall mark.

What is the language of teaching and learning?

English is the language of communication, instruction and assessment at Boston.

What is the mode of provision?

Distance Learning supported with rich-media courseware. For every module, this includes:

- Comprehensive information which consists of:
 - Overview of the qualification, exit level and critical cross field outcomes
 - Overview of the teaching, learning and assessment strategies
 - Module specific information i.e. overview, credits, notional hours, assessment specifics, etc.
 - Tuition plan and academic calendar
- Boston study guide and/or prescribed texts (whichever is applicable)
- The following is hosted/facilitated on our Learning Management System (LMS), ColCampus, which is available online and/or at the Support Centre
 - Filmed lectures
 - Teaching and Learning activities
 - Formal assessment and support
 - Electronic library and other resources
 - Student wellness@boston
- ColCampus promotes anytime, anywhere learning while connecting students to Educators and learning resources in a safe, secure online environment.

What materials/resources will I require in order to Study?

It is compulsory that students have access to a computer and internet. Certain course material and/or notes and assessments will only be accessible online or electronically.

Boston will provide all study guides and/or prescribed texts, module information, timetables, and access to ColCampus for filmed lectures, formal assessments, as well as teaching and learning support for each module. Therefore, there will be no requirement to purchase any additional prescribed materials.

Boston provides resources at its network of Support Centres, including speciality software or technical equipment, to accommodate programme requirements. However, students who opt not to use the Support Centres will be required to purchase the necessary software and/or equipment to complete learning and assessments.

What is a Support Centre?

Boston's network of Support Centres grants our students access to computers and ColCampus for assessments, filmed lectures, electronic library facilities, as well as examination venues and administrative services. Students must select a single Support Centre and may make use of the facilities for the duration of their studies; see attached list.

Where do I complete my Assessments?

Students must select the same Support Centre for assessment purposes. The venue for formative and summative assessments will depend on the specific assessment formats of each module.

- Assignments, research reports, essays, etc. will be uploaded into our online LMS ColCampus, which can be done from home, or at the selected Support Centre.
- Invigilated tests and examination sittings will be conducted at Support Centres or designated exam venues.
- Research presentations and orals will be conducted via Skype at Support Centres or designated proctored venues.

Who will provide me with Academic and Tuition Support?

Boston has appointed qualified and experienced Educators to provide support to learners. Students can contact Educators any time via ColCampus, through e-mail, or alternatively book a telephonic, or Skype appointment. Face-to-face appointments can also be arranged but these will be by appointment only and will take place exclusively at Boston's Head Office.

Can I further my studies when I graduate?

The qualification is registered at NQF (HEQSF) Level 5 and will provide for articulation options into NQF (HEQSF) Levels 6 or 7 qualifications. Graduates may proceed to Advanced Certificates, Diplomas or Degree programmes in a variety of disciplines at any number of public universities, private or international higher education institutions. In order to gain entry into these programmes students will have to meet the admission and selection criteria of the receiving institution.

Catalogue Descriptions

Computer Literacy (HCLT101-1):

The purpose of Computer Literacy is to introduce students to a general overview and introduction to the world of computers and computing terminology. The module will provide the student with a proficiency in the functions of a Computer Hardware and Software and how information is processed in a computer. Students are also introduced to the Windows 10 operating system – a set of computer programs that manage the computer's hardware and software interactions. The approach adopted in this module enables the learner to become a competent user of Windows 10, by balancing theory with extensive practice through a rich collection of “hands-on” tasks and activities. Students also receive an overview of one of the most sophisticated word-processing programmes available today, Microsoft Word 2016. The student will gain capabilities in producing professional documents, creating letters, memorandums, faxes, annual reports, and newsletters. Lastly, students are introduced to Outlook 2016, a personal information manager. Although often used mainly as an email application, it also includes a calendar, task manager, contact manager, note taking, journal, and web browsing.

Academic Literacy (HALP1181):

The purpose of Academic Literacy is to introduce students to the essential literacies required in the present academic context. Every situation in which we find ourselves is influenced by a number of different factors, and this is especially true of the job market – both within South Africa and internationally. While there may be many opportunities, there are also many demands. As such, it is vital to gain a strong academic foundation and make these skills work for you. Your learning should not be viewed in isolation; ultimately, it should enable you to find employment, and even to make a valuable contribution to society.

Advertising 1 (HADV1181):

The purpose of the Advertising 1 module is to provide students with a basic understanding of advertising. The topics in this module range from an introduction to the advertising discipline to the different media vehicles that an advertiser can employ to communicate the attributes of products and services to consumers. The media vehicles covered are traditional media such as print, broadcast and outdoor media, and new media such as online advertising. The module also explains the key role players in the advertising process chain, such as agencies and the creative team involved.

Introduction to Brand Management (HBRD1181):

The Introduction to Brand Management module aims to provide a basic understanding of the management of an organisation's brand and an overview of brands in South Africa, focusing on corporate and political branding. The topics in this module range from an introduction to what a brand is and how to name, manage and sustain a brand. The objectives of brand positioning and what a brand audit entails are presented. The module further focuses on the duties of a brand manager and the role of advertising in branding.

Entrepreneurship (HENT1181):

The Entrepreneurship 1 module focuses on topics relevant to future entrepreneurs, which include: entrepreneurship in perspective; becoming an entrepreneur; business concepts and the business environment; innovation, creativity and problem-solving; the identification, development and viability of business ideas; the business plan; the legal aspects of setting up a business; the entrepreneurial mentality; goal setting; networking; time management; and conflict management. Students who complete this module will have the knowledge and skills to create feasible and viable business ideas.

Integrated Marketing Communication 1 (HINT1181):

This module aims to introduce the integrated marketing communication (IMC) construct. The topics of this module address the IMC communication features and all the various integrated marketing communication tools, including advertising, public relations, sales promotions, personal selling, direct marketing sponsorship and digital communications. In addition, the module explores the incorporation of both traditional and digital media into the integrated marketing communications construct. The module concludes with an overview of marketing communication decision-making processes.

Applied Psychology (HAPS1181):

Applied Psychology focuses on an array of topics that include contextualising applied psychology; theories framing thinking and practice in work psychology; psychology as a science; perception, cognitive processes, workplace learning, motivation, attitudes, values and ethics; social processes, aggression and conflict; the dynamics of group behaviour; the nature of personality, leadership and entrepreneurial behaviour; managing stress and emotions; and managing diversity.

Event Management 1 (HEVM1181):

The purpose of Event Management is to introduce event management and develop foundational event management skills, which include sustainable event management, research and planning, theming, catering, event sponsorship, budgeting, event marketing, applied risk management, feedback and evaluation.

Media Law 1 (HMLW1181):

The purpose of Media Law 1 is to equip students with the knowledge, theory and methodology of fundamental legal principles in advertising. This module achieves this by equipping students with theoretical and practical insight on copyright, advertising law, privacy and freedom of expression issues and codes of conduct applicable to the media profession.

Work Integrated Learning (HWCACP1171):

The purpose of Work Integrated Learning is a process through which students develop knowledge, skills, and values from direct experiences outside a traditional academic setting. Experiential learning encompasses a variety of activities, including undergraduate research and other creative and professional work experiences. Well-planned and assessed work integrated learning programmes can stimulate academic inquiry by promoting interdisciplinary learning, civic engagement, career development, cultural awareness, leadership, and other professional and intellectual skills. Learning that is considered "integrated" contain all the following elements:

- Reflection, critical analysis, and synthesis.
- Opportunities for students to take initiative, make decisions, and be accountable for the results.
- Opportunities for students to engage intellectually, creatively, emotionally, socially, or physically.
- A designed learning experience that includes learning from natural consequences, mistakes, and successes.

About the Institution

The Boston City Campus (Pty) Ltd (Boston) Higher Certificate in Advertising & Integrated Communication Practice is accredited by the Higher Education Quality Committee (HEQC) of the Council on Higher Education (CHE). Boston is registered with the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET), as a private higher education institution, No. 2003/HE07/002, in terms of Section 54(1)(c) of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act No 101 of 1997), and Regulation 14(4)(a) of the Regulations for the Registration of Private Higher Education Institutions, 2016.

International Recognition

Boston is accredited as an independent higher education institution with the British Accreditation Council (BAC). This qualification is accredited by the Council on Higher Education (CHE), is registered on the NQF (HEQSF) by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) and the institution is registered by the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET) as a Private Higher Education Institution (PHEI) to offer the qualification.

The DHET is a department of National Government, and both the CHE and SAQA are statutory bodies, as such these entities are recognised globally. Therefore the qualifications/institutions that are accredited/licensed by them are accepted/recognised throughout the world by other government departments and by their respective agencies such as World Educational Services (WES) and other prominent authorities for purposes of equivalence/articulation i.e. employment/labour certification or further studies. This is a quid pro quo arrangement amongst United Nations Member States; as the DHET, CHE and SAQA similarly recognises other nation/states' qualifications/institutions for equivalence/transferring to South Africa i.e. a United Kingdom or Zambian Bachelor of Arts awarded by a public university or private degree granting college which is accredited/licensed in accordance with the United Kingdom or Zambian legislative and statutory requirements, will be equivalated/recognised as such in South Africa.

Similarly the SADC Protocol on Education and Training, which is a legal framework for regional cooperation, provides for the recognition of the equality of all Member States. It must be noted that qualifications will be recognised and that curricula specific evaluations may lead to additional requirements for students to meet in order to enter international programmes or professions, which is the prerogative of the receiving institution/body. For more information pertaining to direct international linkages/relationships visit the websites of the DHET, CHE, SAQA, CHEA and WES.

Disaster Management Act and Academic Services

Boston recognises the need to deploy whatever reasonable measures necessary to obviate any negative impact on academic provisioning that might attend the invocation of the Disaster Management Act (Act No. 57, 2002) and the consequent gazetting of regulations. While Boston will attempt to minimise disruption to academic services, this could result in changes to academic calendars, procedures, processes, services, etc., all of which will be communicated to students and relevant stakeholders.

Disclaimer

This Fact Sheet together with the Prospectus and Student Rulebook are accurate at the time of publication. Boston City Campus (Pty) Ltd reserves the right to alter any of the content due to changes in regulations, market requirements and other reasons. Please note that meeting any of the admission requirements does not necessarily guarantee entry into the qualification. All applications will be evaluated on an individual basis and acceptance will depend on the decision of the Academic Committee at Head Office.
