Setting HR standards

Applying to Transfer-in Credits

Boston allows students with completed credits from recognised education institutions to apply for credit accumulation and transfer (CAT). In the case of completed qualifications, a maximum of 50% of the credits may be transferred-in. Credit transfers will only be considered if accompanied by full academic records with a statement of satisfactory or good conduct. Students interested in applying will be considered individually by the Academic Committee based at Head Office; see relevant section in the Prospectus and the 'Application for Admission Form' online.

RPL Applicants

Boston admits a small number of students through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). Applicants interested in applying through RPL will be considered individually by the Academic Committee based at Head Office; see relevant section in the Prospectus and the 'Application for Admission Form' online.

What is the Duration of Study?

Based on the credits and notional hours of this qualification, the minimum duration is three (3) semesters over a period of eighteen (18) months, and the maximum duration is three (3) years. For more information see, Table overleaf.

What is the Purpose of the Qualification?

The purpose of this programme is to ensure that individuals are equipped with the foundational knowledge, theory and methodology of the important disciplines associated with marketing practices, computer literacy, social media and orientation to the world of work. This enables certificated students to demonstrate initiative and responsibility in an academic context where application of principles and theory are emphasised as a basis for further undergraduate studies and/or access to a wide range of careers within civil society, the public or private sectors.

The skills, knowledge, attitudes and values required by Marketing Practitioners with a specialisation in Social Media are captured in this qualification which is a specialist programme in this field. Thereby offering good breadth on the important topics combined with appropriate occupational and professional depth for its intended purpose. The qualification provides exciting career opportunities in the fields of marketing cum social media, for example:

- Facebook & Twitter Advertising (Sales, Campaign or Project) Assistant
- Junior Social Media
- Marketing/Brand/Event Assistant
- Assistant or Junior
- Researcher/Advisor/Consultant dealing with Twitter, Facebook and YouTube
- Digital Marketing Assistant
- e-Commerce Marketing Assistant
- Junior Communications Officer
- Micro Business Owner
- Integrated Digital Marketer

What are the Programme Outcomes?

On completion of the programme, graduates will have the necessary knowledge and practical skills required to:

- Operate effectively in the workplace using a number of Windows-based end-user applications
- Apply principles of marketing and integrated communication practice to real life situations
- Analyse market research and sales data
- Demonstrate an understanding of e-marketing concepts and strategy and its influence for digital practice
- Understand the basics of e-commerce with a focus on contemporary digital practice
- Demonstrate working knowledge of the main social media platforms for purposes of marketing and commercialisation

What do I require to Pass a Module?

Students will need an overall mark of fifty percent (50%) to pass a module. Students who do not achieve a pass mark in a summative assessment (SA1 and/or SA2) may be provided one (1) further opportunity to retake (supplement) the summative assessment at an additional re-assessment fee.

How is the Overall Mark Calculated?

The overall mark will be calculated from the student's performance on formative assessments (FA's) and summative assessments (SA's).

What is the Curriculum and Fee?

The SABPP Higher Certificate in Marketing specialisation Social Media programme consists of eleven (11) compulsory modules. See Table overleaf. For more information, see pages 29 to 30 for the Catalogue Description of each module.

Please note that Module Fees listed in the Table are for the 2023 academic year.

The Module Fee charged by Boston is a package fee which includes the following:

1. Prescribed textbook and/or courseware;
2. Access to full-time educators to assist with academic support;
3. 24/7 online LMS to access video lectures and teaching and learning; and
4. Support center and student advisor.

As the Module Fee is a package fee, the Module Fee cannot be varied. The Module Fee, therefore, cannot be varied due to the student being in possession of the prescribed textbook and/or courseware prior to the commencement of the module and/or re-registration etc.

SABPP Learner Management Fee and Occupational Programme Assessment Fee are charged separately.

Visit your Support Centre to find out how you save up to a third of your fees as part of the Invest in SA Subsidy.

How many modules can I take each semester?

Minimum is one (1) module per semester; this will ensure students remain academically active. The maximum number of modules you can take in any one (1) semester is dependent on the number of credits per module. It is recommended for full-time working adults to consider completing the programme in a duration exceeding the minimum period of eighteen (18) months, which implies electing to take fewer modules per semester.

What are the assessment strategies?

See Table below for information on the assessment strategy per module and reference the key list below to read about each assessment strategy relevant to your programme, in detail.

Assessment Strategy C (ASC): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as quizzes, will count fifty percent (50%) – twenty five percent (25%) each - towards the overall mark. A summative assessment in the form of a final exam (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%) towards the overall mark.

Due Performance (DP): This module is not weighted nor credit-bearing. However, the minimum hours required in continuous professional and career development must be completed before progressing to the next year of study or certification. It is vital that students in degree programmes develop greater breadth of understanding of interrelated disciplines and practices as mimicked in the world of work, and therefore participation in opportunities provided in this module is compulsory. A summative assessment in the form of reflective essay is required.

Assessment Strategy 1 (AS1): The formative assessment 1 (FA1), formative assessment 2 (FA2), formative assessment 3 (FA3) and summative assessment 1 (SA1), all in the form of practical assessments, will each count twenty five percent (25%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 2 (AS2): The formative assessment (FA1), also known as an assignment or test, will count fifty percent (50%) towards the overall mark. The summative assessment in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%).

Assessment Strategy 3 (AS3): The formative assessment (FA1), also known as an assignment or test, will count forty percent (40%) towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 4 (AS4): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments or tests, will count forty percent (40%) - twenty percent (20%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count fifty percent (50%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 5 (AS5): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments or tests, will count thirty percent (30%) - fifteen percent (15%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a final exam or capstone project (SA1), will count sixty percent (60%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count ten percent (10%) towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy 6 (AS6): Formative Assessments (FA1 & FA2), which may take the form of assignments, research essays or tests will count forty percent (40%) – twenty percent (20%) each – towards the overall mark. Summative Assessments (SA1 & SA2), which may take the form of capstone projects, tasks, presentations, written or oral exams, or a research proposal will count sixty percent (60%) – thirty percent (30%) each – towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy IS (ASIS): An integrated summative assessment 1 (SA1) in the form of a final examination will count 100% towards the overall mark.

Assessment Strategy W (ASW): Formative assessments (FA1 and FA2), also known as assignments, will count forty percent (40%) - twenty percent (20%) each - towards the overall mark. Summative assessments in the form of a practicum, will count forty percent (40%), and a research or reflective essay (SA2) will count twenty percent (20%) towards the overall mark.

What is the language of teaching and learning?

English is the language of communication, instruction and assessment at Boston.

What is the mode of provision?

Distance Learning supported with rich-media courseware. For every module, this includes:

- Comprehensive information which consists of:
 - Overview of the qualification, exit level and critical cross field outcomes
 - Overview of the teaching, learning and assessment strategies
 - Module specific information i.e. overview, credits, notional hours, assessment specifics, etc.
 - Tuition plan and academic calendar
- Boston study guide and/or prescribed texts (whichever is applicable)
- The following is hosted/facilitated on our Learning Management System (LMS), ColCampus, which is available online and/or at the Support Centre
 - Filmed lectures
 - Teaching and Learning activities
 - Formal assessment and support
 - Electronic library and other resources
 - Student wellness@boston
- ColCampus promotes anytime, anywhere learning while connecting students to Educators and learning resources in a safe, secure online environment.

What materials/resources will I require in order to Study?

It is compulsory that students have access to a computer and internet. Certain course material and/or notes and assessments will only be accessible online or electronically.

Boston will provide all study guides and/or prescribed texts, module information, timetables, and access to ColCampus for filmed lectures, formal assessments, as well as teaching and learning support for each module. Therefore, there will be no requirement to purchase any additional prescribed materials.

Boston provides resources at its network of Support Centres, including speciality software or technical equipment, to accommodate programme requirements. However, students who opt not to use the Support Centres will be required to purchase the necessary software and/or equipment to complete learning and assessments.

What is a Support Centre?

Boston's network of Support Centres grants our students access to computers and ColCampus for assessments, filmed lectures, electronic library facilities, as well as examination venues and administrative services. Students must select a single Support Centre and may make use of the facilities for the duration of their studies; see attached list.

Where do I complete my Assessments?

Students must select the same Support Centre for assessment purposes. The venue for formative and summative assessments will depend on the specific assessment formats of each module.

- Assignments, research reports, essays, etc. will be uploaded into our online LMS ColCampus, which can be done from home, or at the selected Support Centre.
- Invigilated tests and examination sittings will be conducted at Support Centres or designated exam venues.
- Research presentations and orals will be conducted via MS Teams at Support Centres or designated proctored venues.

Who will provide me with Academic and Tuition Support?

Boston has appointed qualified and experienced Educators to provide support to learners. Students can contact Educators any time via ColCampus, through e-mail, or alternatively book a telephonic, or MS Teams appointment. Face-to-face appointments can also be arranged but these will be by appointment only and will take place exclusively at Boston's Head Office.

Can I further my studies when I graduate?

The qualification is registered at NQF (OQSF) Level 5 and will provide for articulation options into NQF (OQSF) Levels 6 or 7 qualifications. In order to gain entry into these programmes students will have to meet the admission and selection criteria of the receiving institution. However, graduates may proceed with advanced placement to Diploma or Degree programmes in a variety of disciplines with Boston City Campus.

Certification

Prospectus 2023 Programme Category: Occupational Qualification.

Upon successful completion of the occupational qualification, students will receive a Higher Certificate in Marketing specialisation Social Media (SAQA ID 21086), NQF (OQSF) Level 5 (minimum credits 160) from the South African Board of People Practices (SABPP).

Catalogue Descriptions

Computer Literacy (Word, Word Advanced, Outlook) (HCLT101-1):

The student receives an overview of one of the most sophisticated word-processing programmes available today, Microsoft Word 2021. The student will gain capabilities in producing professional documents and creating letters, memorandums, faxes, annual reports, and newsletters. The student is also be introduced to advance word-processing applications and will gain the ability to collaborate on documents via track changes and commenting, insert and format graphics and charts, create templates and Forms and work with Macros. The student is introduced to Outlook 2021, a personal information manager. Although often used mainly as an email application, it includes a calendar, task manager, contact manager, note-taking, journal, and web browsing.

Academic Literacy (HALP1181):

The purpose of Academic Literacy is to introduce students to the essential literacies required in the present academic context. Every situation in which we find ourselves is influenced by a number of different factors, and this is especially true of the job market – both within South Africa and internationally. While there may be many opportunities, there are also many demands. As such, it is vital to gain a strong academic foundation and make these skills work for you. Your learning should not be viewed in isolation; ultimately, it should enable you to find employment, and even to make a valuable contribution to society.

Marketing Management 1 (HMKT1181):

The purpose of Marketing Management 1 is to develop an understanding of the following aspects of marketing management: the basic concepts in marketing management; the internal marketing environment; the external marketing environment; formulating a marketing strategy; understanding “product”, “place”, “price” and “promotion” in the marketing mix; the role of public relations and mass communication in business; integration – formulating a strategic marketing plan; what is digital media; digital marketing within the broader scope of marketing; and digital marketing strategy.

Integrated Marketing Communication (HINT1181):

This module aims to introduce the Integrated Marketing Communication (IMC) construct. The topics of this module address the IMC communication features and all the various integrated marketing communication tools, including advertising, public relations, sales promotions, personal selling, direct marketing sponsorship and digital communications. In addition, the module explores the incorporation of both traditional and digital media into the Integrated Marketing Communications (IMC) construct. The module concludes with an overview of marketing communication decision-making processes.

Sales and Promotion Practice 1 (HSPS1181):

The purpose of Sales and Promotion Practice is to provide an array of topics that include: an overview of advertising, print advertising, radio advertising, television advertising, outdoor advertising, online advertising, social media advertising, sales careers – the selling process and organising the sales effort, sales forecasting and budgeting, territory and time management, sales training and motivation, salesforce remuneration and evaluating performance, sales promotions and sales metrics.

Digital Practice: E-Marketing (HEMK1181):

The purpose of Digital Practice: e-Marketing is to understand the basic principles of e-marketing in the South African context. Understanding the principles of e-marketing is essential for survival in the current dynamic and global markets. Students will be able to recognise and understand the designing of websites, the role of search engines, search engine optimisation, online selling, email marketing, mobile marketing, social media marketing and e-marketing research. These components will be considered as part of an e-marketing plan and strategy.

Digital Practice: E-Commerce (HECM1181):

The purpose of Digital Practice: E-Commerce is to provide students with the knowledge on how to create web pages, give information on the online customer, establish e-commerce stores, market the e-commerce stores, e-tailing, manage e-CRM, business to business e-commerce, e-commerce planning, strategy and management as well as measuring e-commerce store successes.

Digital Practice: Social Media (HYFT1181):

The purpose of Digital Practice: Social Media is to understand the development and the growth of social media in e-marketing. Understanding the principles of social media in e-marketing is essential for survival in the current dynamic and global markets. Students will understand the function of Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Snapchat as social media platforms. They will be able to create accounts for these respective social media platforms, which forms part of the evolution of communication.

Consumer and Buyer Behaviour (HCBB1181):

Consumer and Buyer Behaviour introduces students to the core of consumer behaviour. The module provides the student with the required knowledge on effectively creating market value for customers; enabling the student to become knowledgeable regarding market characteristics, which include: culture, subculture, reference groups and social classes; personal characteristics, customer perception and learning; customer motivation and attitudes; the consumer decision-making process; household decision-making; organisational buying behaviour. Ultimately, the module empowers students to build relationships with customers in the traditional sense and the online world.

Principles of Marketing Research (HMKR1181):

The purpose of the module is to introduce students to an array of topics, including an introduction to marketing research, an overview of the marketing research process, data collection methods and the marketing research proposal, observation in marketing research, marketing research (questionnaire design), sampling and sampling procedures, fieldwork, data analysis, research report writing and integration and analysis.

Work Integrated Learning (HWCMTM1181):

The purpose of Work Integrated Learning is to develop knowledge, skills, and values from direct experiences outside a traditional academic setting. Experiential learning encompasses a variety of activities, including undergraduate research and other creative and professional work experiences. Well-planned and assessed work-integrated learning programmes can stimulate academic inquiry by promoting interdisciplinary learning, civic engagement, career development, cultural awareness, leadership, and other professional and intellectual skills. Learning that is considered “integrated” contain all the following elements:

- Reflection, critical analysis, and synthesis
- Opportunities for students to take the initiative, make decisions, and be accountable for the results
- Opportunities for students to engage intellectually, creatively, emotionally, socially, or physically
- A designed learning experience that includes learning from natural consequences, mistakes, and successes.

About the Institution

Boston City Campus (Pty) Ltd (Boston) is accredited for the occupational qualification Higher Certificate in Marketing specialisation Social Media by the South African Board of People Practices (SABPP), which is a Quality Assurance Partner (QAP) of the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO) and is registered as a Professional Body by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA).

International Recognition

Boston is accredited as an independent higher education institution with the British Accreditation Council (BAC). This occupational qualification is accredited by the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO) (through the delegated arrangement with their appointed QAP/LQA, the SABPP), is registered on the NQF (OQSF) by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA). Separately, Boston is registered by the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET) as a Private Higher Education Institution (PHEI) for a variety of higher education qualifications.

The DHET is a department of National Government, whereas the CHE, QCTO, UMALUSI and SAQA are statutory bodies, as such these entities are recognised globally. Therefore the qualifications/institutions that are accredited/licensed by them are accepted/recognised throughout the world by other government departments and by their respective agencies such as World Educational Services (WES) and other prominent authorities for purposes of equivalence/articulation i.e. employment/labour certification or further studies. This is a quid pro quo arrangement amongst United Nations Member States; as the DHET, CHE, QCTO, UMALUSI and SAQA similarly recognises other nation/states' qualifications/institutions for equivalence/transferring to South Africa i.e. a United Kingdom or Zambian Bachelor of Arts awarded by a public university or private college or private degree granting institution which is accredited/licensed in accordance with the United Kingdom or Zambian legislative and statutory requirements, will be equivalated/recognised as such in South Africa.

Similarly the SADC Protocol on Education and Training, which is a legal framework for regional cooperation, provides for the recognition of the equality of all Member States. It must be noted that qualifications will be recognised and that curricula specific evaluations may lead to additional requirements for students to meet in order to enter international programmes or professions, which is the prerogative of the receiving institution/body. For more information pertaining to direct international linkages/relationships visit the websites of the DHET, CHE, QCTO, UMALUSI, SAQA, CHEA and WES.

Disaster Management Act and Academic Services

Boston recognises the need to deploy whatever reasonable measures necessary to obviate any negative impact on academic provisioning that might attend the invocation of the Disaster Management Act (Act No. 57, 2002) or any other Act and the consequent gazetting of regulations. While Boston will attempt to minimise disruption to academic services, this could result in changes to academic calendars, procedures, processes, services, etc., all of which will be communicated to students and relevant stakeholders. For the Post-Schooling Sector, HIGHER HEALTH has a dedicated 24-hour toll-free helpline for addressing the mental health and psycho-social support needs of students and staff: Toll-free call 0800 36 36 36 or SMS 43336.
